Page 2

Mr. McKee has completed four (4) years of his supervised release sentence. He has satisfied all the conditions of supervision. He has maintained a stable residence and lawful employment. Mr. McKee attended weekly drug/alcohol aftercare and weekly AA/NA meetings as a consequence to his arrest to driving while under the influence on August 22, 2004. Prior to this incident, Mr. McKee has not suffered any prior criminal convictions. Based upon Mr. McKee's excellent adjustment under supervision, it is this officer's opinion that Mr. McKee is not a risk to the community and has received the maximum benefit from supervision.

The Assistant U.S. Attorney has been notified and there are no objections.
